Dear Shri Vijay,

I wish to draw your kind attention to the fact that the National Commission for Women has, with a view to ensure adherence to the Constitutional and Legal requirements, decided to launch the second nationwide competition for generating awareness about legal rights of women for ensuring that all sections of society are fully conversant with the law and contribute effectively for their successful implementation.

A copy of the details placed on the website of the National Commission for Women to this effect is enclosed for ready reference.

I shall be grateful if you could advise all the degree colleges/universities/deemed universities in your State to ensure participation of maximum number of students in the competition to be organised in accordance with the guidelines on the subject.

with best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

(K.L. Sharma)

File No: 05-3/1/2018/Capacity Building (NCW)
National Commission for Women

Dated: August 16, 2018

Subject: Nation-Wide Competition for College/University students on laws related to women.

The National Commission for Women is an apex statutory body established under an Act of Parliament. The Commission is mandated to study and monitor all matters relating to constitutional and legal safeguards provided for women; to review the existing legislations and suggest amendments, wherever necessary; look into complaints and take suo motu notice of cases involving deprivation of the rights of women in order to provide support, legal or otherwise; and monitor proper implementation of all legislations enacted to protect the rights of women to enable them to achieve equality in all spheres of life and equal participation in national development.

2. The National Commission for Women has, with a view to disseminate information on Constitutional and Legal rights/entitlements, etc of women decided to conduct the Second Nationwide Competition for Undergraduate and Postgraduate Students of colleges and Universities including Deemed to be Universities in the country. The Competition will assess and enhance awareness about legal rights of women. The competition will be conducted by the college/University concerned as per procedure detailed herein.

3. The Expenditure incurred up to a maximum of Rs 28,500/(Twenty Eight Thousand five Hundred only) will be reimbursed by the National Commission for Women to each college/institution organizing the competition as per details given below:

Sl. No.	Items/Particulars	Maximum funds reimbursable (Rs)
1.	First Prize (One)	2,000/-
2.	Second Prize (One)	1,500/-
3.	Third Prize (Five)	5000
4.	Other Arrangements (including paper setting, invigilation, examination/marketing of papers, compilation of results, banners, refreshments, etc).	20,000/-
5.	Total	28,500/-

4. No expenditure out of the funds made available by the National Commission for Women shall be incurred for procuring any asset or any activity other than for organizing the competition.

5. It is clarified that only colleges/Universities awarding an Undergraduate or Postgraduate degree in any discipline will be eligible for participation in the competition. Colleges imparting education at 10+2/intermediate level and students of 10+2 or intermediates classes will not be eligible to participate in the competition. All colleges will be required to get themselves registered on the online portal of the National Commission for Women.

6. The competition may be organized on any dates between September 1, 2018 to December 31, 2018.

7. The Competition shall be open for all students in the respective college/university irrespective of their gender.

8. The question paper for the competition will comprise multiple choice type questions and will be finalized by the college/university at their own level. It should include at-least 75 questions with multiple options. Efforts should be made to include a few questions from each Act/Convention enumerated in Paragraph 11 below. The Colleges and Universities shall take all steps to generate fair competition and ensure smooth conduct of competition. Each college/university will set up their own question paper and shall conduct their examination. All cases where any of the activities such as common paper, common centre, etc. are used by more than one college/institution, will be rejected summarily.

9. The competition may be organized by colleges/universities without prior approval from the National Commission for Women. The colleges/Universities may, however, inform the dates of organizing the competition to the National Commission for Women through email, viz. priti.kumar@nic.in, or ncw@nic.in.

10. The respective colleges shall ensure that maximum students participate in the competition. The expenditure will be reimbursed only to ~~such colleges where 50 or more students participate in the competition.~~ This number will be relaxed to 30 students in case of North Eastern States and hilly states of Jammu and Kashmir, Himachal Pradesh and Utrakhhand.

11. The competition may include topics relating to the following laws:

- i) Constitution of India mainly, the preamble, Fundamental Rights, Directive Principles of State Policy, Fundamental Duties, including Article. 32 and Article 226 thereof.
